

Christian Colaneri was born in Sulmona (AQ) on March 7, 1973. He earned a degree in Civil Engineering, Transport Management major, at the University of Rome La Sapienza.

Immediately after graduation, he interned to obtain the qualification to the profession for a leading industrial company.

In 2002, he joined the FS Group holding managerial positions of increasing importance in the railway traffic circulation sector through the subsidiary Rete Ferroviaria Italiana.

In 2013, he became Head of Circulation at the Milan headquarters.

From 2014 to July 2016, he assumed the responsibility of Territorial Director of the Sales and Network Operations Department for the pertinent Vertical Axis Line.

Since 2017 he has been Director of the Sales Department of Rete Ferroviaria Italiana.

He was appointed, with Presidential Decree of May 2022, Extraordinary Commissioner for the "Caltagirone – Gela. Restoration and modernisation" and for the "Railway Ring of Palermo. Completion of the second phase" projects.

In January 2018, he was appointed by Rete Ferroviaria Italiana Partner as Director and Chief Executive Officer of Quadrante Europa Terminal Gate S.p.A.

The latter is a company jointly owned by Rete Ferroviaria Italiana and Consorzio Zai, an institutional body consisting of the Municipality, Province and Chamber of Commerce of Verona.

