

79th COLPOFER General Assembly & 2nd COLPOFER – RAILPOL Symposium 18-19 June 2025

National Railway Museum of PIETRARSA (Naples)

HOTEL AND TRAVEL INFORMATION

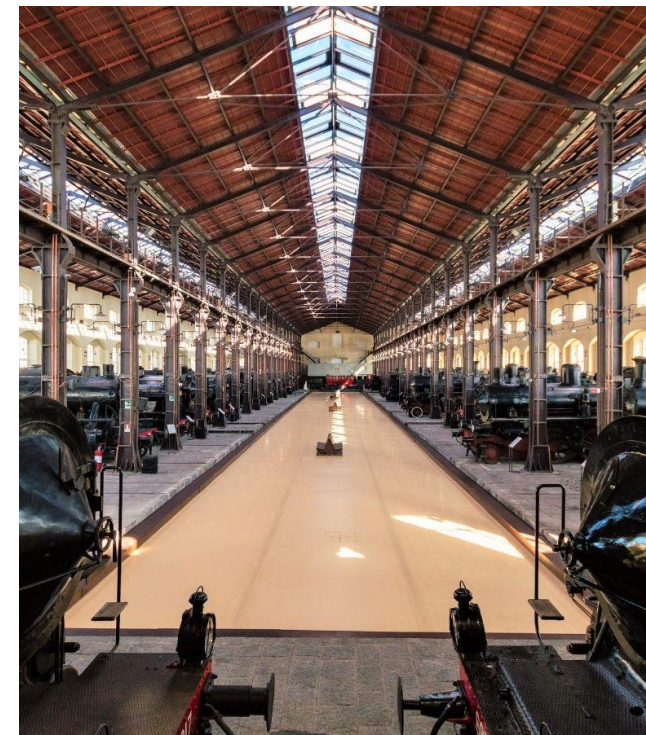

Welcome to the National Railway Museum of Pietrarsa!

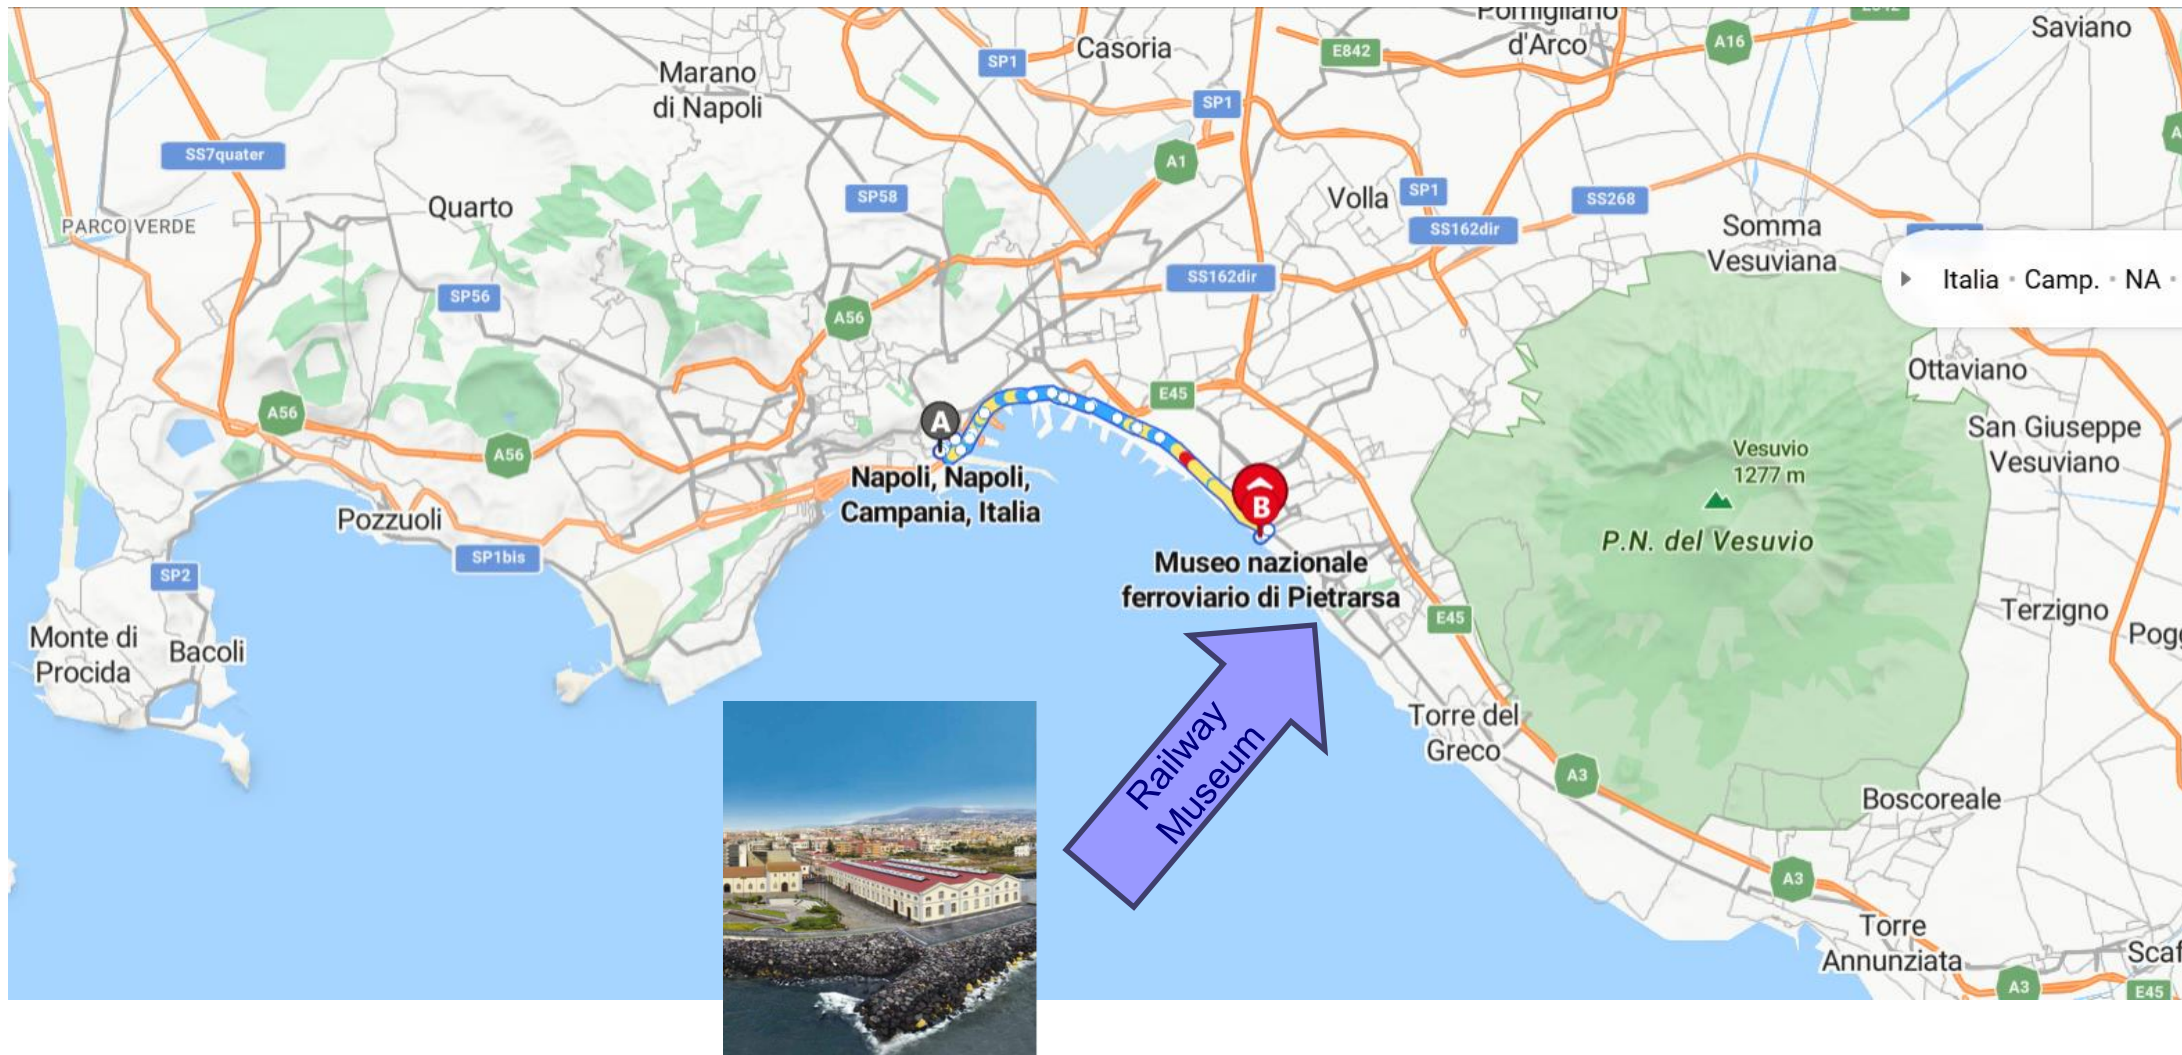

The collection of the National Railway Museum of Pietrarsa gathers more than 55 historical rolling stocks, located in the ancient Pavilions of the bourbon workshop, which, back in time, used to host all the specialized departments of the different making sections of the production cycle.

The visit will give you the opportunity of a suggestive journey back in 1839, the year of the inauguration of the first Italian railway line, until more recent times.

The National Railway Museum of Pietrarsa is conveniently located at less than 20 minutes by train from Naples

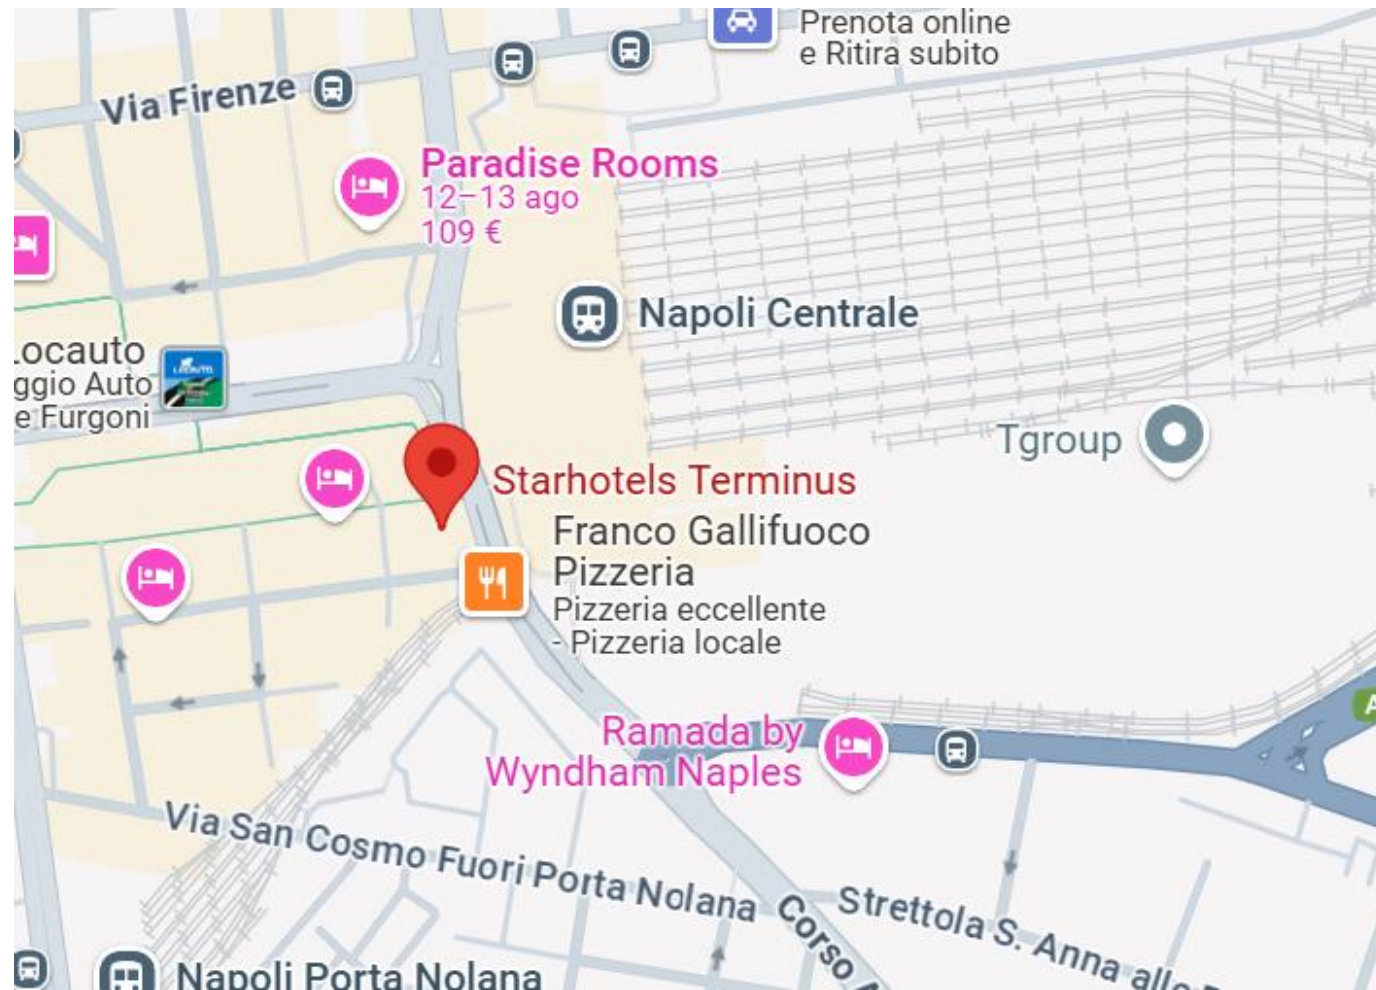

How to get there

The easiest way to get to Pietrarsa Railway Museum is by train. Trenitalia local and regional trains on the Naples-Salerno line stop at Pietrarsa-San Giorgio a Cremano Station (the stop of the Museum).

From the station Napoli Piazza Garibaldi (underground station in Napoli Centrale) you can catch a Trenitalia Regional or Metropolitan train which will take you to Pietrarsa in less than 20 minutes.

The ALIBUS Naples Airport Shuttle Bus

The Alibus Naples airport shuttle links Naples Capodichino airport with Naples Central Train Station in a 15-minute-ride. It operates from 05:30 am to midnight on a 10-30-minute frequency, depending on the time of the day. You'll easily locate the stop of the Alibus Naples airport shuttle bus within close distance from the terminal's doors (the bus stop is to be found adjacent to the pick-up area).

The ticket for the bus ride from the Airport to the city center costs 5€ and can be bought from the driver inside the bus (only cash payments are accepted in that case), online, or through the automatic vending machines that lie on the Ground floor of the terminal's Arrivals area. You'll have to validate (tap in) your ticket as soon as you enter the Naples airport shuttle.
